Welcome to Bear Path Lodge: The House That Skiing Built!

Come stay at Bear Path Lodge for your next ski trip, family reunion, business meeting, trip with friends, or families! You won't be disappointed! We designed this home to be one that you can enjoy being together, yet everyone has their own retreat to go to. Over 5,200 square feet! From top of the line TV systems to ski equipment storage and boot/glove drying systems, this home truly has it all! And the views of Park City Mountain Resort & Deer Valley, to the Uinta Mountains will delight all. Come home from a great day skiing, shopping, hiking, or golfing to a relaxing time in the hot tub. You also have a hard to find 2-car garage so your cars won't be snow-covered in the morning! Convenient to Park City's complimentary bus line. Professionally decorated, appointed with top quality linens, plenty of storage for all your equipment, and so much more makes Bear Path Lodge the destination you should book now for your next trip to Park City!
